UH OH!?!?!

I wonder if that will be my reaction, I mean, when He comes? I wonder if I will have gotten everything straight, if I will have done it all – everything that I want to and of course everything that I’m supposed to do? Not like getting the yard work done or paying off that loan, calling an old friend or finally making it to Ireland. I mean fulfilling everything He has been pushing me to accomplish for so long a time! Of course, of utmost importance would be my relationship with HIM! Where am I then in my relationship with God and how have I shared that relationship with other people? Last Thursday on the Feast of the Ascension the gospel stated that “repentance, for the forgiveness of sins would be preached in His name...” Have I repented for my sins, have I changed my life or is just being sorry enough? He died for my sins right, what more do I have to do? But they were HIS words – repentance! Hmmm? Have I taken part in the sacraments? Have I felt obliged to celebrate great feasts in the life of the Church other than Christmas and Easter (as far as a Holy Day and the word obligation intends)? Have I kept the Lord’s Day holy? That’s a good one! There are so many things I could ask myself and I should unless I like most people have grown lax in waiting for Him to come again? We have celebrated Our Lord’s Ascension into heaven and have been promised that He will come again! In the Book of Revelation John heard a voice saying “Behold, I am coming soon!” So in the early church they waited and waited day after day until they finally felt that soon, in God’s time might be in God’s time? Maybe, He will come after the formation of His people, His Church? Maybe He will come after the building of God’s kingdom? Maybe when all is said and done? What a statement! When all is said and done! So he gave us time to say and do it all – personally and as a church! So, have I said and done it all? The questions could be endless? Only I can answer them!!!

P.S. MEMORIAL DAY MASS - It was so enjoyable last year! Weather permitting, we will celebrate this mass once again at 9AM in the parish cemetery (where it meets the school parking lot & playground down back). Please bring a lounge chair or blanket to sit on! Following mass we will bless the cemetery in honor of those who fought for our freedom! Please join us!

God Bless You!
Rev. Kev
