YOUR NAMES ARE WRITTEN IN HEAVEN

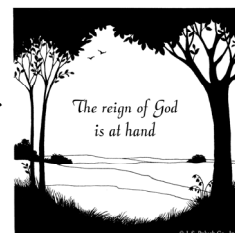

Well, hopefully many names are written there? Thankfully, some who think they may not be! Unfortunately, some not who think they are? In the gospel reading Jesus sends out his disciples two by two to minister to God's people, all awhile proclaiming that the Kingdom of God was at hand for them. How is this so? Because in their ministry they are fulfilling God's will! They are doing the work of the Lord. Kind of like those people that knock on our doors and want to come in and read us their bible (that's right – be careful – they've re-written theirs – but do you know yours?). They take their ministry that serious that they too will go door to door without any qualms to minister to God's people. In that way they try to manifest God's kingdom by sharing his word and caring (though controlled) for those they meet. So, although we aren't expected to go door to door, two by two or to "carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals" or to fail in greeting others along the way, we should be ready and willing to touch the lives of all those that we meet with the light of faith, through our kindness, our cheerfulness an our giving to one another. Do you already meet those requirements? To you think that you reach out enough already, especially to those in need? When too does what we do become enough? What about volunteering? Do you do enough for your church? And when the disciples return rejoicing because their ministry was so fulfilling, Jesus tells them that their names are written in heaven for having answered God's call! Funny thing? We know that our loved ones who have died are with the Lord and we celebrate with this hope in our hearts even as we mourn their loss. But Jesus says that the disciples names, those who followed him and ministered as He taught, that their names are written in heaven. The question is then, will our names be written there because we have done His will? Next question...do we care?

OOOPS! Though the pictures matched up and everything for last Sunday's bulletin, we thought the 4th of July edition was this week? This neat little story was supposed to be a part of it...

THE ATHEIST & THE MARINE

A United States marine was attending some college courses between assignments, having completed missions in Afghanistan and Iraq. One of the courses had a professor who was a vowed atheist and a member of the ACLU. One day the professor shocked the class when he came in. He looked towards the ceiling and flatly stated, "God, if you are real, then I want you to knock me off this platform. I'll give you exactly 15 minutes." The lecture room fell silent. You could hear a pin drop. Ten minutes went by and the professor exclaimed "Here I am God! I'm still waiting?" It got down to the last couple of minutes when all of the sudden the Marine jumped out of his chair, went up to the professor and cold-cocked him right in the jaw knocking him right off the platform. The professor was out cold. The Marine went back to his seat and sat there quietly. When the professor eventually came to, noticeably shaken, he looked at the Marine and asked, "What is the matter with you? Why did you do that?" The Marine calmly replied, "God was too busy today protecting America's soldiers who are protecting your right to say stupid things and act like an idiot. So He sent me!!!" God Bless You!
